KENYA

LAND OF MYSTERY AND MARVELS

NO! YOU DO NOT NEED A SPECIAL HAT!!! Once again I have to remind you all, you do NOT need any special clothing!!!! :>)

Everything is casual ... EVERYTHING! Formal dinner-wear is a clean T-shirt!!! :>)

WE'RE BRACING FOR A MAJOR SNOW STORM, SO THIS NEWSLETTER IS EARLY! Our power company and communication company have sent notices that we may be down sporadically anywhere from hours to days. Hence, this will be the shortest newsletter you'll get! (Unless this "storm" is worse than they predict ... then we may miss a week!)

Hartbeest

Again, if you wish to go swimming, PLEASE stay in the hotel pools!!! :>)

In case you forgot, here's another shot of Ol Tukai Lodge. This is our first stop on Safari.

We'll see plenty of giraffes along the way ... and up close and personal once we get to the Giraffe Centre back in Nairobi.

We'll probably also see plenty of these along the way!

As promised, this is REAL short!!!! Hopefully, next week's will be more informative!

`til next week stay happy, healthy, and SAFE!!!!
