KENYA Land of Mystery and Marvels

Another beautiful sunrise to begin our day in Kenya! During our safari, we'll see many beautiful sunrises AND sunsets ... a lovely way to begin and end each day in the mysterious and marvelous country of Kenya! We will spend our first night in Nairobi (The Stanley Hotel), the only city in the world to have a game reserve within its borders.

Those of you who know Africa only from Tarzan movies, you'll expect deep, dark jungle! NO! We will NOT be fighting off snakes or trudging through crocodile infested waters!!! For the most part we'll be traveling through the vast Savannah of Kenya. The sky is clear and you can see for miles! You might think this makes it easier to see the animals and that is mostly true, but you'll be surprised by how they can camouflage themselves right out there in the open! Fortunately, our guides are able to point them out regardless of where they think they're hiding!!! :>)

In a matter of hours, we'll go from the density of Nairobi with its traffic jams, noise, and crowds of people, to the vastness of the savannah with miles of nothing! THEN we leave the now paved roads and go off track to our first destination:

Amboseli Serena Safari Lodge. Since this lodge is located within Amboseli National Park, the approach road may be paved! LOL!!!

We'll arrive here in time for lunch and our first game drive. Not to worry, you will enjoy your lunch as well as every meal for the entire trek! The food IS delicious, it's all buffet, and quite plentiful! You'll recognize many dishes as well as having the opportunity to try some you've never seen or heard of! (Yes, crocodile does taste like chicken!) :>)

<<< Here's an example of what to expect while in Amboseli. The perfect backdrop: Mount Kilimanjaro and one of its famous elephants!

Enjoy the rest of the summer and let me know you'll be joining us in Kenya next June!

Lest we forget, Princess Elizabeth was in Kenya when news of her Father's death reached her and she became Queen Elizabeth II ...

Rest in Peace ... Lady of Valor ...

I close this week with another beautiful sunset over the savannah of Kenya!
