KENYA

Land of Mystery and Marvels

Ok, I lied! Here's another newsletter! The past few weeks have been insane and exhausting! ... but we'll get through it! Meanwhile, you guys have to begin cooperating and let me know who's going! :>) Linda, Helen, and Joan are all set, but the rest of you who are on the fence, have to pick a side! LOL!!! We MUST have a head count to firm up the rooms! If you Googled the hotels, you will have seen how small and private they are and realize how quickly their space goes! (We now have 2 singles available at an extra cost of $175.00 total.) A number of you have "committed" verbally, but I really do need FIRM commitments!

Even the Maasai are excited and jumping for joy at the prospect of meeting us! :>)

Deposits are due by 01 December 2022, so let's get this going! :>)

Don't miss another sunrise or sunset in the amazing country of KENYA!!!
Who knows if you'll ever have another opportunity to go?

Don't forget to check our FaceBook page to follow up on questions and answers! AND as usual, I suggest you keep going back to our website: www.RevengeTrek.com and go over our itinerary! It is a fabulous trek and especially good if you've never been before ... although returning trekkers will also appreciate enjoying new experiences! Every trip gives you something new to see and experience! ... and to photograph!!! Oh, yes, and to taste! :>) Not to mention "meeting" all the kids!!!

Don't turn up your nose at this opportunity! Who knows if you'll have it again!

I wish you all a happy week and urge you to let me know ASAP who's going!

'til next week, keep smiling and sending your questions to info@RevengeTrek.com
