KENYA Land of Mystery and Marvels

Hope you all had a wonderful Thanksgiving! The weather's turning crisp and the air is filled with the sights and scents of autumn! Oh, yeah, and then there's football!!!

<<< Here we have the Secretary Bird ... very large! They walk around with their heads up while their eyes are scanning the ground for whatever small rodent or lizard or whatever comes along for lunch! :>) I've only seen one in-person, but they are regal to look at! If you're into birds, Kenya has plenty!!

We'll see them in various places and if you're lucky, you may see something you'll never see again!

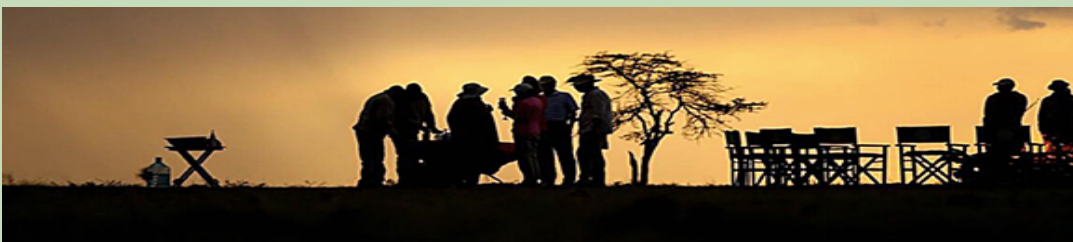

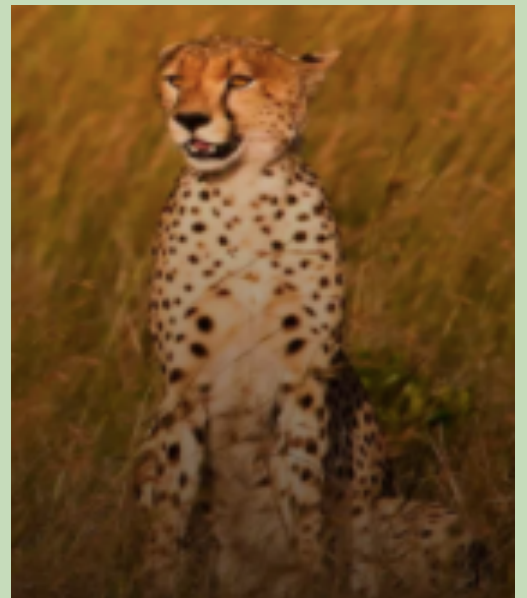

Enough about birds! Deposits are due very shortly and we're still down a few people. Not good, folks! There a quite a few of you who said you'd let me know before 01 December that you'd be going with us. Now's the time to speak up! Remember, every year the price for these treks goes up, but this year UTg has held the 2021 price for us! ... AND if we go over our required number, the price does go down. There are still 2 singles available at an additional cost of $175.00 total!

Wouldn't you like to meet these guys in person? I always thought the bottoms of their feet were solid ... how surprised I was when I saw them "digging" for salt at TreeTops!

Ok, let's see, Alan! You and your lovely would truly enjoy this Trek ... there's so much to see and experience!!! ... and Dr. Z! What about you and your family? Don't you think you deserve a true "getaway" after all the hours you've put in over the past 3 years??? How about you, Eileen? No, not you, Eileen M, you just got back from South Africa! Barbara??? George??? Come on, let me know you'll all be with us!

Shoot me an email to let me know you're in!!! Time's a tickin'!!!

We'll get some great photos!!!
...and make some great memories!!!

We need to know who's with us so we can get the proper documents emailed to you ... that way we can confirm our land reservations and move on to the packing phase!!! :>)

That's it for this week ... let's get all of you on board for this wonderful trek ... something you may not have the opportunity to experience again!
