

KENYA Land of Mystery and Marvels

Amazing elephants ... so big, yet so agile! (and you thought they only did this in the circus!) Just one of the many surprises awaiting us ... will you be part of this Trek??? Let me know!!!

As we all know, the world is changing every day ... who knows how long it will be before so many of these animals are extinct? Join us while they're still there ... free and natural!!!

"The challenges facing wildlife in Africa are (both) historical and current and the future looks dim at times, (but) the idea of giving up on wildlife in Africa is to me like giving up on your child. I never tire of trying new ways of making a difference." Paula Kahumbu (Wildlife conservationist & CEO of WildlifeDirect)

Let's see how many of these do you think we'll find?

CHUI = Leopard

DUMA = Cheetah

KIFARU = Rhino

PUNDAMILIA -
Zebra

SIMBA = Lion

TWIGA = Giraffe

Ok, folks, we're still short 4 people!!! This past weekend I had a call from an old friend. Her daughter was getting married in July and instead of the usual Bachelorette Party, the in-laws decided they'd sent the bride, her maid of honor and bride's maids on a trek! The party of 6 was to join us on Safari!

Yaaaaay!!!!
Last night I had a call ... the wedding's off.

The bride broke up with her fiancée ... so instead of having exceeded our quota and having our price reduced, we're back to needing those 4 people!!! Know anyone who'd like to join us???

If you like Flamingoes, you'll love Lake Nakuru ... There are times you can not see the water due to the vast number of Flamingoes crowding the lake!

I've had more questions about food, clothing, and just how "modern" the hotels and tents are ... I'll get into all that in more detail once we've got a firm headcount. It's all easier than you think and there's nothing to be worried about! The first time my friend, Carol, and I went we had the same questions!

The food is GREAT - indoors or out!

Clothing is all casual ... you do NOT have to buy safari clothing!!!

...and all the properties we'll be staying at have indoor plumbing!!! That includes the tents! :>)

Don't believe me??? Google the hotels especially the Sarova Mara Game Camp!!!

That's it for this week ... keep smiling and if you know anyone who'd like to join us, send me their email and I'll put them on the mailing list! Remember: Deposits will be due 01 December 2022!!!

You can email me at info@RevengeTrek.com

'til next week! Kwa Heri! Jeanie
