KENYA

In only 414 days we'll have a hearty breakfast at the Stanley Hotel in Nairobi, Kenya then meet our drivers, get into our vehicles, and leave on SAFARI!!!

Land of Mystery and Marvels

Isn't she BEAUTIFUL!?!?!?

I guess it's time to do a bit of re-capping. You already know about clothing, but I still get questions about it! Ok, NO YOU DO NOT NEED SPECIAL SAFARI CLOTHING!!! ... and under no circumstances should you wear anything Camo!!! That's Camouflage for those of you who don't know. It's reserved for KENYAN MILITARY ONLY!!! Again, don't waste space packing jeans or hiking boots. Jeans are too hot and boots just take up space ... think chinos and sneakers.

NO, YOU DO NOT HAVE TO BE AFRAID OF THE FOOD! It's all great! Yes, you'll have the chance to sample local cuisine, but you will recognize and enjoy some of your favorites from home. It's all buffet, so you can try what you like.

Oh, dear G-d, save me! YES, EVERY PLACE WE STAY WILL HAVE A BAR!!! LOL!!! The "local" beer is Tusker and everyone seems to enjoy it!

That takes care of clothing, food, and drink! LOL!!!

Whew! Now it's time to relax with one of those drinks from the bar!!

One of you asked if we'd see the animals alone or with other species. Here's an example of what we can and will see ... we may even see some lions resting in the background ... not hunting - yet.

We may be entertained by local dancers and asked to join in the fun. Recognize anyone, Diane??? Hope you and your sisters are ready to join us again! :>) We all had a great time ... and, Alan, if you join us, I'll take a photo of you up there dancing! You can teach them a few new steps!!! :>)

As usual, asante sana for your questions. I hope you enjoy these newsletters and look forward to traveling with us! Keep the questions coming and if you did travel with me last time, do send your comments, funny stories, experiences, or whatever so others can see what this trip is all about!

`til next week Kwa heri!
